Nominations for Senator being declared in order, Senator Cunningham, on behalf of the Democratic members of the Senate, nominated Hon. R. L. Gibson. Mr. Jackson, of St. Mary, a colored Republican, seconded the nomination. On motion of Mr. Dennis nominations were declared closed.

The balloting resulted: Whole number of votes cast 122. For R. L. Gibson, 122. General Gibson was thereupon declared elected.

RAILROAD RACKET.

Cash Payment Made to the Louisville & Nashville.

An Important Outlet Opened toward Havana.

Specials to the Star.

LOUISVILLE, Jan. 22.—The latest move of the L. & N. is in the direction of Havana. Arrangements have been made for a direct steamship line between that city and one of their ports.

The steamer Admiral, which is at present on a voyage to Havana, with General Grant aboard, will be the first in the line, and will make weekly trips from and to Havana, beginning about the 1st of March.

It is not yet decided which port will be selected, but it will be either Mobile or Pensacola. Arrangements will be made to connect the boat with fast trains, so as to get passengers to New York as quick as possible.

This will be the shortest possible route for passengers from the North, East or West to Havana, and will effect a saving in time, in a trip from New York to Havana, of four hours, besides averting a dangerous voyage around Cape Hatteras, Florida reefs and other dangerous points along the coast.

Our merchants here, as well as at Chicago, St. Louis, Cincinnati and at other places within reach of this magnificent system, will be enabled to ship direct to Havana, Mexico and South America, on through bill of lading, thus saving a great deal of trouble and expense by avoiding transfers.

DR. STANDFORD INDIGNANT.

New York, Jan. 22.—The story regarding the proposed lease of the Louisville & Nashville Railroad and its dependencies by the Pennsylvania Company, is emphatically denied by parties interested. Dr. Standford says there is not a word of truth in the story. There has been no negotiations with the Pennsylvania Company on the subject, nor has the idea of such a lease even been entertained by the officers of the Louisville & Nashville. The idea of the Pennsylvania Company desiring to lease our roads is perfectly absurd. The Louisville & Nashville is in a position to lease roads, not to be leased.

FIRST CASH PAYMENT TO THE L. & N.

The cash payment for the first installment of stock of the Nashville, Chattanooga & St. Louis Railroad Co. has been recently purchased from the principal stockholders by the Louisville & Nashville Company, has been made to the Continental National Bank as trustee. The terms of the purchase provided for the payment of one third of the stock in cash, and the remainder in Louisville & Nashville Railroad Company debenture bonds at par, payable in four years. An equal amount of the purchased stock will be deposited with the Continental Bank to secure the payment of the debenture bonds when they shall become due.

WASHINGTON NEWS.

PAYING THE UNITED STATES MARSHALS.

SETTLING THE INDIAN QUESTION.

General Sherman, Secretary Schurz, Senator Teller and Judge Belford, had a long conversation last evening with Quay and other Ute chiefs. It was decided that the subject under discussion should be kept secret for the present. It can be stated, however, that the conclusions were satisfactory to all parties.

It is understood that the Ute Indian Reservation question has been practically decided, and that the reservation will be opened to settlers by the 1st of May, with the approval of Indiana. It is also understood that the questions at issue between the Government and the Ute Indians, growing out of the attack on White River Agency, are approaching a final and satisfactory settlement.

It is understood that the statements recently published charging the Mormons with inciting the Ute insurrections have been thoroughly sifted and found to be entirely without foundation. It is probable that by Saturday next the Secretary of the Interior will be able to make official announcement of the satisfactory termination of the negotiations with the Ute Indians on all questions at issue. It is understood that the Utes do not go to the Indian Territory to reside.

THE PRESIDENT'S SIGNS.

The President approved the bill establishing a land office at Grand Forks, Dak., also the bill amending the mine law in regard to taking out patents for mineral lands.

THE AYRES BRUTE IDENTIFIED.

AYRES, MASS., Jan. 22.—From his photograph and from his hat and boots left at Cambridge, the alleged tramp, who outraged and murdered Mrs. Crue, has been identified as Starnak Abbot.

A HOSTLER'S FATAL SHOT.

GREENCASTLE, IND., Jan. 22.—Two hostlers, Ad. Heber, a white boy only seventeen years old, and Wilkes Mays, a mulatto, employed at Black Brothers' livery-stable, got into an altercation yesterday, when Heber drew a pistol and shot Mays in the breast, a little to the left of the lower extremity of the breast bone, inflicting a mortal wound. Heber fled.

PUT THAT EYE OUT.

GALENA, ILL., Jan. 22.—During an altercation between Christopher Eve and Frank Schwab, of this city, yesterday, the former cut the latter in the left arm with a razor, making a frightful wound, fully an inch deep, and extending from the elbow to the wrist, causing hemorrhage, which, it is feared, will result in death.

HE GAVE HIMSELF AWAY.

National Associated Press to the Star.

CHICAGO, Jan. 22.—James B. Dixon, formerly a lake Captain, was arrested yesterday for the murder of Charles Miller last Friday morning. Dixon talked about the murder in his sleep Monday night, and fired off his self-acting revolver, fracturing his room-mate almost to death. He had Dixon arrested, and it was found that one other chamber of the revolver was empty. This and other circumstances point to him as the murderer, but he strongly denies it.

FIRE AT PARO.

PARO, D. T., Jan. 22.—A fire in the heart of the business portion of this city destroyed three buildings last night. The Republican Office, owned by J. B. Hall & Son, the liquor house of C. H. Mitchell, and the clothing store of Geo. Hirschfeld, were all burned. Loss, $15,000, partly insured.

CHICAGO'S DAILY SUICIDE.

CHICAGO, Jan. 22.—Jules Methelot, a young German, until recently general manager of the large wine dealing firm of Stern & Rose, committed suicide this morning by taking a dose of arsenic. He had been drinking heavily and thus lost his position, and it is said, was suffering with delirium when he evinced the deed.

EVIDENCE OF A MURDER.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 22.—The police are considerably exercised over the discovery of a skull and some human bones, together with a hatchet having matter hair adhering to the blade and an old rusty pistol, which were found in a cess pool in the rear of the premises No. 406 North Front street, and which has every indication of murder having been committed.

On the 12th of this month a white male child, about four months old, was left with two colored women named Martha Coleman and Sarah Crow, residing on Front street, near Plum. Since then the mother of the babe has never returned, and the infant was this afternoon placed in the Children's Home.

Typographical Errors.

As specimens of typographical errors, there are, among others, the following: By the insertion of one letter in place of another, a newspaper not long since, reported the danger that an express train run, in consequence of a cow getting upon the line, said: "As the safest way, the engineer put on full steam, dashed up against the cow, and literally cut it into halves!" A Scotch newspaper, reporting the speeches at a Scott centenary meeting, made one of the orators exclaim, with more truth than accuracy: "O Caledonia, stern and wild, Wet nurse for a poetic child."

MIXED MAINE.

Both State Governments in Blast at Augusta.

But the Fusionists Propose to Move to Biddeford.

Republicans Sadly in Need of a Treasury.

REPUBLICAN DEMONSTRATION.

National Associated Press to the Star.

AUGUSTA, ME., Jan. 22.—At Senator Blaine's demonstration last night less than 1,300 people were present. Ex-Governor Morrill presided, and introducing Blaine nominated him for the Presidency. Blaine began with a review of the opening scene of the Legislature and said that without firing a gun, without shedding a drop of blood, without striking a single blow, without one disorderly assemblage the people have regained their own rights, through the meek chamberlain, made a stalwart speech eulogistic of the Republicans' peaceful tactics and self-reliance.

Mayor Nash was glad his humble services of the last two weeks met with their approval.

The meeting then broke up, and the crowd went to the Augusta House to serenade Gov. Davis.

FUSIONIST CAUCUS.

The Fusionists held a caucus at 2:30 p. m. yesterday, to which no reporters were admitted. A. P. Gould was present with E. F. Pillsbury, and insured the members that they were undoubtedly a legally organized Legislature.

BLAINE AND HIS BONDS.

It is said Senator Blaine owns $90,000 worth of Maine State bonds, and that he tried hard to dispose of them after the Legislature muddled began.

REPUBLICANS IN A QUANDARY.

AUGUSTA, Jan. 22.—Noon.—The Republicans are in a quandary this morning. Their Treasurer-elect, Sam. W. Holbrook, has gone home to Freeport, and the Finance Committee is considering what is best to be done. They can not get control of the Treasury Department, unless the Fusionists break up or they get a decision of the Court against the legality of the office of the Fusion Treasurer, Charles A. White, who is in full possession. He has a large amount of money on deposit in Boston, all subject to his order.

NOT AN ANIMATED SCENE.

The scene in the State-house this morning is not at all animated. Great interest is felt in the doings of the Fusionists. There is talk of their adjourning to-day to Biddeford.

FUSIONIST LEGISLATURE.

The Fusion Legislature met at 10 a. m. at Union Hall.

In the House Mr. Cushman requested the Committee on Elections to prepare the report on contested seats as soon as possible, for it is not his wish to hold a seat unless he was clearly entitled to it.

The Speaker announced the standing committees of the House.

In the Senate but little business was accomplished during the first hour.

FUSIONISTS PROPOSE TO MOVE.

AUGUSTA, ME., Jan. 22.—1 P. M.—The Fusion Legislature adjourned at 11:30 a. m. The Senate transacted no business of importance. The House appointed a Special Committee of three to which was referred the resolution providing for making arrangements with the authorities of some other city for accommodations for the Fusion Legislature and Department offices. A dispatch was received from James A. Strout, the Mayor of Biddeford, extending the hospitalities of that city, and guaranteeing protection if the Legislature goes there.

Hill, of Auburn; Chas. Cobb, of Rockland.

REPUBLICAN LEGISLATURE.

AUGUSTA, ME., Jan. 22.—3 P. M.—The order authorizing Secretary of State Chadbourne to provide a new State seal, received its final passage in the Republican Legislature to-day.

Mr. Strout reported from the Judiciary Committee a bill to provide punishment for the offense of obtaining and using the State seal or for the removal of any records or documents from their place in the State-house.

Indianapolis.

MORE EXODUSTERS—NEWSPYR GAINED—DIED OF HIS INJURIES.

Special to the Star.

INDIANAPOLIS, Jan. 22.—Another batch of twenty-five colored Carolinians arrived here late last night. They are in a pitiable plight, but they say situations have been found for them in this country.

Mickey, a diminutive newbory, attempted to steal into Moninger's saloon through the cellar yesterday. The proprietor met him with a heavy cane and injured him seriously.

George Cook, the colored man who was struck by the train on the Peru Road at the Massachusetts avenue crossing recently, has died from his injuries.

Another Newport Tragedy.

Jacob Lickert, a bona stone-mason, lived with his family of a wife and seven young children at 130 Ann street, near Tibbatts, Newport. At No. 137 lives Jacob Geyer, a carriage-maker, and also a man of family, who has been employed at Fred. Winkler's wagon shop on Moonmouth street, corner of James alley. The children of the two families had quarreled with each other, and the heads of the families took up the children's feud. The two men met at Munnigh's saloon, No. 236 Columbia street, near Tibbatts, about 6 o'clock last evening. Here the quarrel was resumed, and they disputed and threatened for some time.

Finally Geyer said: "I'll get my pistol and shoot you." Lickert replied contemptuously: "Get your pistol, I'm not afraid of your pistol." Geyer left the saloon hurriedly, and it would seem, went home. Lickert staid at the saloon for about twenty minutes, when he also left. It was now about 7 o'clock. At the corner of Ann and Tibbatts streets Lickert found Geyer waiting for him. What words passed between them is not known, but Geyer presented his pistol at Lickert's breast and fired.

The ball struck immediately above the heart and seemed to rage downward. Lickert fell to the ground and was picked up by Mr. John Lang. Once on his feet, the wounded man was enabled to walk to his home, about half a square distant, with slight assistance, but it was found necessary to help him in and to bed.

Drs. Thornton and Bennet probed for the ball, but without success. The weapon was a twenty-two caliber, four-barreled pistol. Lickert's wound is believed to be fatal.

The police were soon apprised of the shooting and in twenty minutes after it occurred were on the spot and made every effort to ferret out Geyer, but without success. It appears that after the shooting he walked home as unconcerned as if nothing had happened. He told his wife what he had done and handed her the revolver. He then got his coat and left, going to a neighbor's, Mr. Bonniajo's, on Columbia street. He also told the latter gentleman about the shooting, and asked him what he had better do.

He was advised to go at once and deliver himself up to the police. Mr. Bonniajo went immediately to see the extent of Lickert's injuries, and on returning home found Geyer pacing up and down his yard in a bewildered manner and appearing very anxious to learn if the shooting would prove fatal.

On learning the dangerous condition of Lickert he left at once, saying he was going to give himself up. He failed to do so, however, but it is said he was seen to go out the Alexandria Pike late last night in the direction of Four Mile, where he has friends living.

The police, however, have failed to gain any clue of his whereabouts. Lickert was still lying at 12 o'clock, but was sinking rapidly. The physicians have a very slight chance to find the ball. A man who worked with Geyer some time ago stated this morning that the latter was often heard to say that he shot and killed a man in Germany, for which he was obliged to leave the place.

HENRY SNOW'S DEATH.

Adjournment of the Courts—Bar Meeting—Epitome of His Life.

Mr. Henry Snow, one of the best and most widely-known lawyers of the Cincinnati Bar, died at his residence, No. 14 Auburn avenue, on Mount Auburn, at 9 o'clock this morning.

He was the brother-in-law of Judge Burnett, of the District Court. His wife was the daughter of Rev. Dr. Stoughton Lynd, the first pastor of the Ninth-street Baptist Church, one of the leading ministers of this city.

The District, Superior, Common Pleas and Probate Courts adjourned at noon today upon the announcement of Mr. Snow's death.

A meeting of the bar was held in N. 2 of the Common Pleas, at which Judge Cox presided, and after suitable remarks by the Chairman and Mr. Bradstreet, a committee of five, consisting of Judge P. F. Follett, Alex. Long, E. P. Bradstreet, J. D. Follett and J. W. Herron, was appointed to prepare resolutions and report to the adjourned meeting on Saturday.

The Mass has been well rehearsed, and the last rehearsal will take place Saturday evening at the Lookout House. A new "Veni Creator," composed by Mr. L. Picket, will be sung for the first time in Cincinnati. The affair promises to be a grand treat to lovers of Church music.

One of the two white crows (the female) sent over to John Rhine, of 24 Court street, from a relative in Switzerland, a short time ago, died night before last. They were a great curiosity, and Mr. Rhine refused $350 for the pair, offered him by a gentleman of this city, who intended placing them in the Zoological Garden.
